The University of Manchester

Situated just 5 miles outside Manchester city centre, visitors have the choice of 230 marble boulevards. Stores range from designer and high fashion favourites, including the first Selfridges outside London, to stylish homewares at Barton Square. From tea dances and Mall Walking to fashion shows, book signings, pop concerts and film premieres, there's always something going on. The Centre is also home to 60 restaurants, cafes and bars in The Orient and the opulent Great Hall as well as a 20 screen Odeon cinema. <http://www.traffordcentre.co.uk>
